1       The Court, having considered Defendant Yasiel Puig's Ex Parte Application
2 for an order striking the government's June 1, 2023 Motion for Order re:
3 Defendant's Knowing Breach of Plea Agreement ("Motion") [Doc. # 110], or in the 4 alternative, an order continuing the hearing date and briefing schedule, and finding
5 good cause therefor,

6       IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- 7           1. The hearing on the Government's Motion is continued from July 5, 8              2023 to July 19, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. Puig's deadline to oppose the 9              Motion is July 5, 2023; the Government's reply brief deadline is July 10             12, 2023.
- 11           2. Future motions seeking a ruling in advance of a pretrial conference
12              must comply with the Court's standing order in criminal cases,
13              specifically, the requirement that counsel meet and confer to agree
14              upon a briefing schedule in advance of filing the motion. [See Doc. #
15             28 at 2.]

16       IT IS SO ORDERED.
